EXECUTIVE SEARCH

"Your sincerity
and honest discussion
was refreshing
to say the least."

"...I can tell you that your professionalism and approach is of a higher standard than what I would believe to be in a traditional recruiter."

Our product is people.
The right people.
With the right stuff.

As part of That's Good HR, you get this Refreshing Integrity Promise from each of our executive recruitment specialists:

We promise to represent your company and its opportunities with the same level of respect and focus as you would. End of story.

We talk with you, face to face.

We get you face to face with the right person.

If we can't, we'll find someone who can.

We send a certain kind of candidate.

Usually, more than one.

Not everyone is lucky enough to have talent like this walk in the door.

Handpicked. Carefully screened.

Clear about the opportunity when they arrive.

We know Accounting. Finance. Operations.

Human Resources. Sales and Marketing.

We'll invest in learning your field.

We'll invest in getting to know you. By name.

We'll learn what you love. What you need.

And how we can help you grow your business.

One person at a time.

Here's a word that's rarely applied to executive search firms: Flexible.

We own the business.

So we approve our own relationships.

We ask for fair payment.

Modified retainer. Contingency.

Or a relationship shaped to fit you.

Most importantly, honesty is not optional.

Neither is follow-through.
